

REGULATION 6183: Home and Hospital Instruction
Comparison Chart
 Section: Instruction

SUMMARY OF UPDATE

Summary of Update: Regulation reorganized and updated to reflect NEW LAW (AB 2109) which expands the parental notification to include information regarding student eligibility for individual instruction and the duration of such instruction, requires that individual instruction in a student's home begin within five days of determining a student's eligibility, provides that students receiving individual instruction in a hospital for a partial week are eligible to attend school on days that they are not at the hospital, and provides that the absences of a temporarily disabled student must be excused until the student is able to return to the regular school program.

PARA	Section	Sub-Section	October 22, 2001 CURRENT VERSION	December 2018 REVISED VERSION	CSBA MODIFICATIONS and/or NOTES
1			A student with a temporary disability which makes school attendance impossible or inadvisable shall receive individual instruction in the student's home or in a hospital or other residential health facility, excluding state hospitals. This instruction applies to students incurring a physical, mental or emotional disability after which they can reasonably be expected to return to regular day classes or an alternative education program without special intervention. It does not apply to students identified as individuals with exceptional needs pursuant to Education Code 56026.	A student with a temporary disability which makes school attendance impossible or inadvisable shall be entitled to receive individual instruction at home or in a hospital or other residential health facility, excluding state hospitals.
				Temporary disability means a physical, mental, or emotional disability incurred while a student is enrolled in regular day classes or an alternative education program, and after which the student can reasonably be expected to return to regular day classes or the alternative education program in which the student is enrolled. Temporary disability does	New paragraph added not include a disability that would qualify a student for special education pursuant to Education Code 56026.

			At the beginning of the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians of district students regarding:	New paragraph added CSBA NOTE: Education Code 48206.3, as amended by AB 2109 (Ch. 167, Statutes of 2018), requires the district to notify parents/guardians of the availability of individual instruction for students with a temporary disability and to include in that notification information regarding student eligibility for, and the duration of, individual instruction.
			1. The availability of individual instruction for any student with a temporary disability, including information regarding student eligibility for, and the duration of, individual instruction	New section added
			2. The rights and responsibilities of parents/guardians of any student with a temporary disability pursuant to Education Code 48207 and 48208	New section added
			Parents/guardians shall notify the principal or designee when their child is temporarily disabled and needs individual instruction at home or in a hospital or other residential health facility.	New paragraph added CSBA NOTE: Pursuant to Education Code 48208, it is the primary responsibility of parents/guardians to notify the district when their child is in a qualifying hospital. This paragraph expands this requirement to include notification when a temporarily disabled student needs instruction at home.
			Determination of Student Eligibility	New category
			Not later than five working days after receiving notification from a parent/guardian that a student has a temporary disability, the Superintendent or designee shall determine	New paragraph CSBA NOTE: Education Code 48208 specifies that the district must make a determination regarding a student's eligibility for individual whether the student will be able to receive individual instruction at home or in a hospital or residential health facility.	instruction within five working days of receiving notification of the student's presence in a qualifying hospital. Although the law does not establish a time period for determining a student's eligibility for individual instruction at home, This paragraph uses the five-day time period for determining eligibility for home instruction and may be revised to reflect district practice.

			The Superintendent or designee may require verification through any reasonable means that the student is temporarily disabled and needs individual instruction.	New paragraph CSBA NOTE: This optional paragraph may be revised to reflect district practice.
			Provision of Individual Instruction	New category
2		Home or hospital instruction shall be provided only by teachers with valid California teaching credentials who consent to the assignment.	Delete
			Individual instruction at a student's home or in a hospital or other residential health facility shall begin no later than five working days after the Superintendent or designee makes the determination that the student is eligible to receive individual instruction.	New paragraph CSBA NOTE: Education Code 48208 requires that individual instruction in a hospital or residential health facility begin no later than five working days after determining a student's eligibility. As added by AB 2109, Education Code 48207.5 establishes the same time limit for providing instruction in a student's home.
3		The district shall offer at least one hour of instruction for every day of instruction offered by the district in the regular education program. No student shall be credited with more than five days of attendance per calendar week or credited with more than the total number of calendar days that regular classes are offered by the district in any fiscal year.	Delete

			The district shall be responsible for providing individual instruction to any temporarily disabled student who is in a hospital or other residential health facility located within district boundaries, whether or not the student is enrolled in the district. If the student is enrolled in another district, the Superintendent or designee may enter into an agreement to have the student's district of residence provide the individual instruction. The Superintendent or designee may also enter into an agreement to provide individual instruction to a district student who is in a hospital or other residential health facility located within the boundaries of another district.	New paragraph
			Whenever the district provides individual instruction to a non-district student who is in a hospital or other residential health facility located within district boundaries, the Superintendent or designee shall, within five working days of the beginning of the individual instruction, provide written notification to the student's district of residence that, effective on the date on which individual instruction began, the district of residence may not count the student for purposes of computing that district's average daily attendance.	New paragraph
			A student receiving individual instruction in a hospital or residential health facility for a partial week shall be entitled to attend school or receive individual instruction at home on days in which the student is not receiving individual instruction in the hospital or other residential health facility, if the student is well enough to do so.	New paragraph  CSBA NOTE: Pursuant to Education Code 48207.3, as added by AB 2109, students receiving individual instruction in a hospital or residential health facility for a partial week remain eligible to attend school on days when they are not at the hospital. Pursuant to Education Code 48207, as amended by AB

					2109, for apportionment purposes each district may count the student's attendance for only those days it provides instruction to the student.
				Home or hospital instruction shall be provided only by teachers with valid California teaching credentials who consent to the assignment.	New paragraph
4			Insofar as possible, the teacher providing home or hospital instruction shall consult with the student's current classroom teacher(s) so as to provide a continuity of instruction that enables the student to stay abreast with the regular school program.	No change	CSBA NOTE: This optional paragraph may be revised to reflect district practice. State law does not prescribe the content of home and hospital instruction, but the California Department of Education's web site states that the goal of the program is to maintain the student's former level of performance while recovering.
5			The Superintendent or designee may require verification through any reasonable means that the student requires home instruction. In addition, this verification shall also state that the disabling condition will not expose the teacher to a contagious disease that can be transmitted through casual contact. Home or hospital instruction shall not be denied to students with Hepatitis B, Herpes or HIV/AIDS, as long as the home or hospital practices current preventive protocol as determined by the U.S. Centers for Disease Control.	Delete
				The district's attendance supervisor shall ensure that the absences of any temporarily disabled student receiving individual instruction at home or in a hospital or other residential health facility are excused until the student is able to return to the regular school program.	New paragraph CSBA NOTE: Education Code 48240, as amended by AB 2109, adds the following responsibility of the district's supervisor of attendance.
				Return to School	New category

			A student receiving individual instruction who is well enough to return to school shall be allowed to return to the school that the student attended immediately before receiving individual instruction, if the return occurs during the school year in which the individual instruction was initiated.	New paragraph
		Non-District Students	Delete
1		A student of another district who is temporarily disabled and confined to a hospital or health facility within this district shall be eligible to receive individual instruction in this district.	Delete
2		In such circumstances, it is the responsibility of the parent/guardian to notify the district of the student's presence in a qualifying hospital.	Delete
3		Upon receiving such notification, the Superintendent or designee shall:	Delete
	1	Within five working days of the notification, determine whether the student is able to receive individualized instruction and, if so, when it shall begin. Instruction shall begin no later than five working days after the Superintendent or designee has determined that the student is able to receive individualized instruction.	Delete
	2	Within five working days of the beginning of the individualized instruction, the Superintendent or designee shall provide written notification to the district in which the student was previously enrolled stating that the student shall not be counted by that district for purposes of computing average daily attendance, effective the date on which individualized instruction began.	Delete

4		Alternatively, the Superintendent or designee may enter into an agreement with the district in which the student was previously enrolled to have that district provide the individualized instruction.	Delete
		Parental Notifications	Delete
1		At the beginning of the school year, the Superintendent or designee shall notify parents/guardians that:	Delete
	1	Individual instruction is available for temporarily disabled students as prescribed by Education Code 48206.3.	Delete
	2	If a student becomes temporarily disabled, it is the parent/guardian's responsibility to notify the receiving district of the student's presence in a qualifying hospital.	Delete	